

Germany

"If a blonde stands
on a bridge,
the bridge collapses.
Why?
The wiser gives in."

→ In Germany the joke is very funny, because we like to joke about the intelligence of blondes (but we don't think they are actually dumb) 😊

→ This joke is very funny for Swedish people since it involves a portrayal of stupid Norwegians and that's something Swedish people find very amusing 😊

"How do you get a Norwegian submarine to sink?
You dive down and knock on the door..."

Action for Happiness

What about making others happy by telling them jokes?

→ Each country picked their favorite joke → Together we decided on this

joke :

Why did the chicken
cross the road?

- Because the chicken
behind it probably didn't know how to socially distance 😊😊

→ With our little
joke collection,
we hope to give
you happy smiles
during this hard Corona time 😊

Portugal

"What kind of bird can you find in Portugal? -
A portuguese"

→ In Portugal the joke is really funny, because it's typically Portuguese and they enjoy laughing at themselves 😊

→ This joke is funny, because Croatia beat England in the World Cup (soccer) 😊

England: "What do my bike and the world cup
have in common? - Both were stolen from me by a group of Croatians."

Croatia
